

CITY NEWS.

Good morning.

Mrs. Maria Lewis, 1529 Balt., is ill at her home.

Miss Melissa Fuel was called to Warrensburg, Mo., on account of the death of her father.

Mr. E. M. Glass, 1609 East Tenth street has been confined to his bed for two weeks but is able to be out.

Mrs. Sarah Mason of Burlington, Kansas, is in the city the guest of her daughter, Miss Maude Mason.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Watkins, 2316 Woodland Ave., are the proud parents of a ten pound girl. Mother and daughter are doing nicely.

Mr. Tyler Jackson, custodian of the Long building, Missouri Ave. and Main one of our most substantial citizens has been quite ill during the past two weeks.

Mrs. Jas. H. Crews, wife of the well known mail carrier, was taken to Bell Memorial hospital Wednesday seriously ill of a complication of diseases. Her hundreds of friends pray for her speedy and complete recovery.

Dr. J. H. Williams, Grand Master of U. B. F., and his brother B. F., were called to Columbia, Thursday, on account of the death of their mother, Mrs. Julia Williams. The Sun extends its deepest sympathy.

Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Neal of Denver were guests of honor at a five course dinner Sunday given by Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Green. The guests were: Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Weaver, Miss Huntley, Miss Comala Weaver, Mr. F. J. Weaver, Jr., and Mr. Hobart Williams.

WANTED—Colored man or woman with capital as business partner in Undertaking Establishment in or out of Kansas City, Mo. For further information call home phone South 1227 or write Geo. Hall, 4438 Main street, Kansas City, Mo.

One of the most enjoyable events of the season was the musical concert given by the Lincoln High School Orchestra and Chorus assisted by some of the best local talent. Those who missed it certainly missed a rare treat. Mention is made of the program in another column.

Miss DeKenza, special stenographer in the Clover Leaf Casualty Insurance office, from 10 a. m. to 4 p. m. Can take your dictation and typewrite the work. Also can rearrange your material to make it more grammatical or business-like. No job for less than 25 cents considered. Ask for terms on your circular letters or lengthy manuscripts. 1507 East Eighteenth street, upstairs at the left. Room 3.

Mrs. Laura Chrisman, mother of Miss Florida Hutchison one of our loyal subscribers and both faithful members of Allen Chapel, was seriously burned last Friday morning at 3316 Harrison street. Although quite aged the doctor holds out hope for her recovery. Miss Florida herself has just recovered from severe burns inflicted last fall. The Sun hopes for her speedy recovery.

Mrs. Jordan Allen, wife of the Rev. Jordan Allen, a retired A. M. E. minister died at the home of her daughter Mrs. McClain, 1820 Woodland Avenue and was buried from Centennial M. E. church last Tuesday, funeral being conducted by her pastor, Rev. J. R. Ransom of the First A. M. E. church, Kansas City, Kans. Mrs. Allen leaves a husband, two daughters, a son, other relatives to mourn her loss. She was always a splendid worker for her church and race and the Sun extends its sympathy to the bereaved family.

We regret very much to announce the death of the infant son of Dr. and Mrs. G. W. Brown which occurred Sunday a week ago. It was a beautiful child weighing twelve pounds at its birth and had been named William H. in honor of its grandfather. Mrs. Brown who was the beautiful Edmonia Hubbel and one of the dearest and most popular girls in this city and Dr. Brown who stands foremost in his profession and comes from one of the oldest and best families in the state have the deepest sympathy of their myriads of friends and neighbors in their grief, the loss of their first born.

Mrs. Stella Jones wife of Mr. Columbus Jones formerly of Marshall now of this city passed away after a long illness last Monday at 3:00 a. m. at their residence, 1417 East Twenty-second street. Mrs. Jones was a member of Ebenezer A. M. E. church, Excelsior Chapter O. E. S. No. 41 and Green Valley Court H. of J. Marshall. The funeral was held at 1:00 o'clock Thursday at Ebenezer under the auspices of the aforesaid orders. Dr. W. C. Williams officiated. Mrs. Jones leaves to mourn her loss a husband, one sister, two brothers, many relatives and a host of friends. Interment was made in Highland Cemetery.

CARD OF THANKS.

We desire to thank the many friends and neighbors for their kindness during the recent illness and death of our beloved husband, brother and uncle and especially the neighbors for their beautiful floral offerings.

MINERVA ALEXANDER, wife, MAB RICHARDSON, sister, S. A. ALEXANDER, brother, CAPITOLA RICHARDSON, niece.

Mrs. Ida Kelly died February 8, at the home of her mother, Mrs. Lull Gooden, 2446 Highland Ave. and the funeral services were held from Allen Chapel last Wednesday at 2:00 p. m. of which she was a member under the auspices of Foster Chapter O. E. S. Mercy Temple S. M. T. and Vinita Court, H. of J. Dr. Wm. H. Thomas officiating. She leaves to mourn her loss a mother, sister and other relatives and many friends.

Mr. Abraham Fuel age 75 years, died January 31, 1916. He was a pioneer citizen of Warrensburg having lived in that city for forty years. Mr. Fuel reared a family of ten children, six girls and four boys, those surviving him are three girls and one boy and four grandchildren. Funeral services were conducted at the old home town in Warrensburg from the Warren street M. E. church, the Rev. S. P. Johnson officiating. A large number of friends white and colored paid their last respect to this beloved citizen. Mr. Fuel was always desirous of accumulating. After selling his farm on Bristol Ridge and moving to Warrensburg he built a six room house for his little family in the heart of town to educate them, bought a few acres at the edge of town and did truck gardening and hauled and sold wood. He was a great historian and Bible student, saved his church twice by loaning it $1,000 and $500 respectively. The floral offerings were beautiful and profuse from many out of town friends of his youngest daughter Melissa. Letters of condolence were read from Rev. A. L. Reynolds at Farmington, Mo., and from the Blind Boone Concert Co., then in Steele City, Neb.

IN MEMORIAM.

In loving memory of our dear mother, Mrs. Rhoda Nelson who died two years ago today, February 11, 1914. We know dear mother, that thou sleep'st beneath the sod. Yet we miss thee, Oh! so much. Never will your memory fade. Our thoughts will ever linger. Around the place you love so well. AARON NELSON, MR. and MRS. S. L. SMITH, LUCILE NELSON.

VINE STREET BAPTIST CHURCH.

Mrs. Mesdames Hattie Brinkley, Sarah Jones and Annie Pator are on the sick list. We hope they will recover soon. The funeral of Mr. Edward Pleasant was preached last Sunday by our pastor. We extend heartfelt sympathy to the bereaved family. Mr. Pleasant was a good and faithful member and died in full triumph of faith. Mrs. Rosy A. M. Miles will give one of her famous lectures on Eugenics Tuesday, February 15. Everybody is invited to hear this noted woman. Admission 10 cents. The birthday reception given by Mrs. C. S. Freeman at the residence of Mrs. Lydia Gates, 2531 Euclid Avenue was indeed grand. Covers were laid for eighteen. Many valuable presents were presented; a general good time was had. A birth day party was given by little Miss Nancy Moore, 2435 Flora Avenue, February 4. Covers were laid for thirteen and a general good time was reported. A large number of valuable presents were received.

BETHEL A. M. E. CHURCH.

Our revival meeting which closed a few days ago, was a success. Weather conditions were very unfavorable, still the Lord blessed us with twenty-nine conversions and accessions. The outlook for the church is good, the membership is being increased at most every service and the fire of the Holy Ghost continually burns upon the hearts of all true worshippers. On Sunday we will observe "Boys Day." The morning service will be conducted by the boys of the church and community. The Boys Sermon will be preached by Mr. Fred Jackson of Oklahoma. A theological student of Western university. At the close of the morning service the pastor, Rev. F. W. Wells, will administer the Sacrament of Baptism. Prof. J. B. Isaacs, assistant dean Western university, and past Scout Master of Troop 67 Wilmington Delaware, will preach the Annual Sermon to the Boy Scouts Troop 67 Kansas City, Mo., at 8 o'clock sharp evening service. A short talk will be made by Prof. Walden. All are invited to be with us throughout the day with the boys.

FOR A Y. W. C. A.

At a meeting of more than forty women February 1, preliminary steps were taken for the organization of a Young Women's Christian association for colored women in Kansas City. Short talks, instructive and inspiring, were made by Mrs. W. G. Woods, and others.

Wednesday night of this week a second meeting was held at which time several women spoke of the needs of the girls and women of our own city and the various opportunities for health, moral and physical, a Young Women's association could furnish here. Among those who spoke were: Miss Anna Jones, Mrs. Richard Allen, Mrs. DeFrantz, Mrs. Day, Mrs. Sellers, Miss Sadie Thornton and Miss Cook.

The meeting was very well attended and enthusiasm was at its height at the announcement of one 25 pledge to the first year's budget, and three $50 pledges toward the first building campaign.

All interested women are invited to meet Miss Eva Bowles, national secretary from New York City and Miss Vance, general secretary of the Kansas City association, Saturday night, February 19 at the Paseo Y. M. C. A.

FIRST EVENT OF THE SEASON.

A Martha Washington Leap Year Social and Ladies' Band Concert will be given at Allen Chapel Wednesday evening, February 23. Would like all ladies to dress in Martha Washington costume. Gentlemen will be escorted by ladies. Refreshments in the lecture room. Hot biscuits will be served free by Miss Lillian Toley, I-H flour demonstrator. Admission 10 cents.

DUNBAR CLUB.

The Dunbar club was entertained by Mrs. Buehler Anderson at the residence of her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Calloway, 1306 Guinotte, February 3. After business the hostess served an elaborate luncheon consisting of chicken, roast pork, mashed potatoes, cranberry sauce, salmon salad, celery, hot bluet, corn bread and cabbage, apple soup, cake and wine.

MRS. MOLLIE JACKSON, Pres. LEAH WILLIAMS, Sec'y.

AFTER "PORO" HUMBBUGS.

Mar. L. M. Singleton filed agent for the "Poro" College, St. Louis, Mo., spent ten days in Kansas City, Mo., and Kansas City, Kansas, getting evidence against persons claiming to make "Poro" and selling unsealed goods without labels or revenue stamps as "Poro." He states that the people throughout the country are being beaten out of their money by such practice and that "Poro" is made up by Mrs. Pope-Turnbo-Malone, St. Louis, Mo. Persons who have been thus victimized will please notify Mrs. Pope-Turnbo-Malone, 3100 Pine street, St. Louis, Mo.
